TEMPLE OF DAWN WALLPAPER COLLECTION

For decades the name Jim Thompson has been synonymous with wondrous hand woven Thai silks that blend the best of Asia and western elegance. We have now taken this outstanding combination one step further as we expand into wall coverings that compliment our exclusive textile range. Our latest collection of wallpaper is named for a historic landmark in the heart of old Bangkok, the Temple of Dawn. A gleaming monument with spires that reflect on the river, this famous temple with its beautiful mural paintings serves as the inspiration for our dazzling new Jim Thompson wallpaper collection. As Jim Thompson enjoyed doing when he first came to Bangkok in the 1950s, many visitors still wander for hours in peaceful temple enclaves to draw inspiration from the contrasting colors and textures. With decorations and mural paintings that boast a vast array of patinas, the Temple of Dawn, called Wat Arun in Thai, serves as the focal point for the creation of our stunning new wallpaper collection. We have concentrated on an amazing choice of rich earth tones and neutral colors to provide the same serenity and calm one would find in these restful enclaves.

EMERALD ISLES

VINYL WALLCOVERING

For centuries seafaring captains journeyed to the legendary South Pacific Emerald Isles where shiploads of textiles from India were exchanged for highly desired natural commodities. With Jim Thompson's premier selection of vinyl wall coverings we have searched the seas and sparkling shores of these islands for natural textures and hues to create this stunning collection. As always, our inspiration begins with our deep knowledge of naturally woven textiles. In creating wall coverings we delight in achieving the same textures and effects found in slubby homespun linen or the sheen of pure silk. To further enhance the effect of these wall coverings some have been embossed with metallic overlay. So rediscover the magic of faraway lands by including in your décor some of Jim Thompson's wall coverings that are named for the Emerald Isles of the South China Sea.
